Hochgern hiking car park - Jochbergalm - Hochsattel - Grundbachalm - Hochgerngipfel - Hochgernhaus - Enzianhütte - Agergschwendalm - Hochgern hiking car park. For this summit hike to Hochgern via the Jochbergalmen and back via the Agergschwendalm you need good fitness. You will be rewarded with wonderful views, from the Kaiser Mountains to Lake Chiemsee. We start at the Hochgern hiking car park in Unterwössen and walk on path no. 52 through the Kaltenbachtal to the first intermediate destination, the Jochbergalm. The path becomes more and more of a path as it progresses and leads mostly in the shade along the Kaltenbach and then across the alpine meadows to the alpine huts. We continue leisurely uphill through flowering alpine meadows and over the Hochsattel. You will soon have a view of the Hochgern summit from the south. After an easy descent to the quietly located Grundbachalm, a narrow, steep serpentine path leads us to the 1,744m high Hochgern summit. There we enjoy the view of the Alps, the Achental and the Chiemsee, before we follow increasingly wide paths over the Hochgernhaus Enzianhütte and the Agergschwendalm go back into the valley to the hiking car park. Refreshments: Agergschwendalm, Enzianhütte, Hochgernhaus, Jochbergalmen (please note the opening times). Tip: You can watch paragliders take off and fly from the Hochgern summit.
